

SOCIAL AND BEHAVIOR CHANGE PROGRAMMING: INTEGRATING AGENCY, SOCIAL NORMS AND GENDER

Join other SBC practitioners and researchers in this interactive workshop that will explore how we can better leverage agency, social norms and gender in our work. Network with SBC experts from India and abroad. Expand your skillset. Help us develop a discourse relevant to the South Asian context.

Who

We are seeking 25 SBC practitioners and/or researchers with 2-5 years of experience to join this workshop. Affiliation with the South Asia Social Norms and Agency Learning Collaborative is required. Register here become a member.

When

29 - 31 July 2024

Where

Delhi NCR

Language of instruction

English

Logistical Details

All costs for course materials, training, on-site accommodation (2 nights) and meals will be covered by the South Asia Social Norms & Agency Learning Collaborative. Participants are expected to bear their travel expenses to and from the venue.

Why did we develop this workshop?

In the spirit of localisation and decolonisation, this was co-developed by the African Society for Social and Behavior Change, Makerere University, and the University of the Witwatersrand, and contextualised for India by PCI India and Sambodhi Research and Communications Pvt Ltd. We share an interest in moving beyond knowledge to locally-defined and led action, with networks that are proudly located and grounded in the Global South. Lead trainer: Sara Nieuwoudt, PhD

Course Structure

This is a three-day residential workshop where we will integrate theories with learnings from the field through case studies and participatory and improve capacity for sustainable and respectful development.

How to apply

Use the link below to submit your application:
<https://forms.gle/DYPUes8fVJ7ScYCG7>

Application deadline: 30th June, 2024

We'll review all applications and revert by 8th July, 2024. Shortlisted participants will be expected to confirm their attendance by 12th July.

For clarifications of queries, please write to southasialc@gmail.com